

MakerSpace Equipment and Pricing

The Luckey Branch Library MakerSpace is a place to create and share content. It is free to use the library's equipment. The library staff will train you to use the equipment. You may bring your own approved materials for some of the equipment or purchase materials from the library at cost. We recommend bringing extra materials for practice or samples.

Available Equipment and Material Prices

- Glowforge laser engraver/cutter engraves wood, cardboard, glass, leather, some metals, and some acrylics. It can also cut wood (up to 1/8" thickness), cardboard, and some fabrics.
 - Wooden sheets: $1.00 per 12"x12" sheet
 - Note: Glowforge Proofgrade materials may be purchased at craft stores or online from Glowforge.com.
- Flashforge Creator Pro 3D Printer create 3-dimensional objects out of plastic
 - 3D Printing (1.75mm; PLA): $0.10 per gram
- Circuit Expressions 2 and Maker 3 cut paper, cardstock, vinyl, and other materials
 - Vinyl: $2 per square foot
- Cricut Heat Presses transfer heat vinyl to fabric
- Cricut Mug Press transfer infusible ink to ceramic mugs
 - Cricut ceramic mugs $5 each
 - Criteria for non-Cricut mugs:
 - Poly-coated, sublimation compatible products
 - Capacity of 11 to 16 fl. oz. (350-450 ml)
 - Straight-walled drinkware only, avoid curves and uneven textures
 - Outer diameter between 3.2" to 3.4" (82-86 mm)
 - Maximum height of 4.72" (120 mm)
- Button Maker makes a pin-backed button of your design
 - 1.25" pin-back buttons $0.25
 - 2.25" pin-back buttons $0.50
 - 3" pin-back buttons $0.75
- 2 Babylock Jubilee sewing machines straight stitch, zigzag, make buttonholes, and feature decorative stitches

Walk-ins are welcome, but it is always best to make an appointment by calling 419-833-6040.